

James River Valley Library System

2022 Adult (18 +) Winter Reading Program

Directions: Check off an "errand" by filling a reading prompt. Example: To pick up groceries, read a book that features food (ex. The Hundred-Foot Journey by Richard Morais). After you finish the book, you finish the errand! Each errand requires a different book. Write the titles of the books you read on the back of this sheet.

See the back of this card for more details.

Pick-up groceries:

Read a book that features food.

Get a snack:

Read a book that has been recommended to you.

Drop off mail:

Read a journal style book or a book with a pun/wordplay in the title.

Go to the vet or doctor appointment:

Read a book that takes place in a hospital or read a book that has an animal main character.

Go to the library:

Read a book that takes place in a library/bookstore or read a book that has the word book in the title.

Treat yourself:

Read a book that has been made into a film. Bonus: After reading the book, if you then watch the adaptation, cross off an errand of your choice.

How to win:

Once your errand list has been completed, return it to the front desk of Alfred Dickey Public Library or Stutsman County Library, to be entered into the grand prize drawing.

Completed lists must be returned to ADPL or SCL by February 28, 2022, for a chance to win the grand prize drawing.

More ways to win additional prizes:

Bring in your errand list every week until your list has been completed and we'll enter you into our weekly prize drawings. Final weekly prize ends February 26th.

Can't make it into the library? Post what you're currently reading on one of our social media accounts and you'll be automatically entered into our weekly prize drawings. Find us on Instagram and Facebook - @jrvls or James River Valley Library System.

James River Valley Library employees and their families are not eligible for prizes.
