

Social Media Comment Policy

(adopted 11/18/19)

James River Valley Library System does not endorse comments posted on our social media accounts, and such comments do not reflect the official position of the Library. The Library reserves the right to delete unacceptable comments. The following are examples of unacceptable behavior on library social media:

- Comments that are unrelated to the subject matter of the thread
- Comments that endorse political issues or groups, campaign for or against the nomination or election of a candidate, or promote the passage or defeat of a ballot question
- Comments that may compromise public safety or the safety of individuals
- Comments that publish personal information
- Comments whose main purpose is to sell a product, solicit commerce, or solicit donations
- Comments that infringe on copyrights
- Comments that contain profanity or obscenity
- Comments that contain sexual content, links to sexual content, or nudity in a profile picture
- Comments that are defaming or contain personal attacks
- Comments that are spam
- Comments that promote, foster, or perpetuate discrimination on the basis of race, creed, color, age, religion, gender, marital status, national origin, physical or mental disability or sexual orientation
- Comments that constitute or encourage illegal activity
- Other comments that the Library Social Media Team or Library Administrators deem inappropriate

Homebound Delivery Policy

(adopted 2/18/2020)

James River Valley Library System provides free limited homebound delivery services to individuals who are unable to visit the library due to long- or short-term physical restrictions or other situations confining them at home.

- Recipients must live inside the Jamestown city limits
- Homebound individuals must have a valid library card and be in good standing
- Books, DVDs, audiobook CDs, music CDs, and magazines may be borrowed
- Items are loaned for one month
- Up to 10 items may be checked out per month
- Interlibrary loan is not available for homebound delivery
- Recipients may request specific materials or certain types of materials
- Patrons must be at home for delivery; materials will not be left unattended
- Deliveries and pick-ups will be conducted by staff or volunteers
- Staff or volunteers will not enter residences during deliveries
- By utilizing this service, recipients agree that volunteers may view their checkouts
- Deliveries may be suspended or terminated at the discretion of the Library Director
