

Library Bill of Rights Statement

The James River Valley Library System Board of Trustees has adopted as a statement of policy the “Library Bill of Rights” as revised and adopted by the Council of the American Library Association, January 23, 1996. The Library Board of Trustees does not choose to adopt the American Library Association’s interpretation of the “Library Bill of Rights”. The Board reserves the right to make their own interpretation.